

Helen Guinan	Formerly principal of St. Paul's Special School, Cork, and an NCSE council member since 2013, Helen is currently chairperson of the National Disability Authority. She has experience of policy development and implementation at local and national levels over many years. During her teaching career, she was seconded by the National Council for Curriculum and Assessment where she worked as education officer. In her roles as teacher, principal, education officer and chairperson, Helen has always strived to improve the lives of people with disabilities, particularly those whose ability to express their needs is severely limited.
--------------	--