

NCSE Working Group on a Model of Support for Additional Care Needs

TERM OF REFERENCE

The National Council for Special Education is carrying out a comprehensive review of the Special Needs Assistant scheme at the request of the Minister for Education and Skills. As part of this review, the NCSE was requested to identify and develop the most appropriate form of support options, having regard to the significant amount of State investment in this area.

In this context the NCSE has established a working group with the following term of reference:

To identify and develop a proposal for a model of support to provide better outcomes for students with special educational needs who have additional care needs.

The deadline for completion of the working group proposal is end December 2017.

The Working Group will report to the National Council for Special Education.
