Continuity of support during the COVID-19 period of restrictions

NCSE offices remain open and our staff remain available to provide support to parents and schools in the following ways:

For Parents
Special Educational Needs Organisers (SENOs) can be contacted for help and support in the usual way. To find out the name of the SENO and their contact details in your area please click here.

Queries relating to services such as Assistive Technology and Transport may also be directed to your local SENO.

For Schools
Your SENO can be contacted as normal. To find your SENO’s contact details please click here.

Blind/Visually Impaired and Deaf/Hard of Hearing children/young people
Visiting Teachers continue to provide support to parents, guardians, teachers and other professionals involved with children and young people who are blind/visually impaired or deaf/hard of hearing.

While our staff are continuing to provide these vital supports please be aware that the mode of delivery will in many cases need to change in order that we comply with central government and HSE guidelines. We appreciate your understanding at this challenging time.

Online Resources
In addition to the normal supports, the NCSE is currently preparing online resources for children with Special Educational Needs who are at home as a result of the schools’ closure and these will be made available on our website in the coming days.
