Overview of online supports for Post Primary Teachers

This document gives an overview of some of the key supports that are available to Post primary Teachers in order to ensure they can support all their students to the best of their ability during this time of uncertainty and to support teachers to access materials in relation to online learning.

| Teaching Special Education Online During COVID-19 | SEN Teachers looking for further guidance on teaching remotely might view the webinar titled Teaching Special Education Online During COVID-19.

https://register.gotowebinar.com/recording/1509526516513405185 |

This free, one hour webinar is published by the US Council for Exceptional Children, a professional association dedicated to improving the educational outcomes of children with disabilities and/or gifts/talents. It explores
• setting up technology
• self-care
• creating daily routines
• engaging with students (including hosting live sessions)
• models of high-impact online instruction
• support & resources |

| TeacherCPD.ie | A special online course created specifically to support teachers in Irish schools that have been closed because of COVID-19. |

https://teachercpd.ie/mod/page/view.php?id=1798 |

| PDST – Professional Development Service for Teachers | The PDST has curated resources on Distance Learning that will be of use to mainstream and SEN teachers |

https://www.pdst.ie/DistanceLearning |

| Supporting Gifted Students Through Distance Learning | E-Gift is an online learning platform for parents and teachers developed by CTYI and other European experts to provide information on high ability students. It explores the concept of gifted education and has links to many resources to support mentoring through distance learning for exceptionally able students. |

moodle.highability.eu |