

Catherine Cross

Catherine is the Services Manager with National Parents Council for the past 4 years, her role includes advocating for parents in the education sector, developing training programmes for parents and student teachers and managing the Helpline. Having initially trained in Intellectual Disability Practice, she obtained a Bachelor of Social Science and a Masters in Rights and Social Policy at Maynooth University.